

Subject line: The reason why 73% to 95% people lose money in forex trading

Body:

Hey [First name]

It's not easy to lose hard earned money.

It hurts like a bitch.

Let me tell you why 95% of people who try out forex trading end up giving up.

The reason is...

"They lack a working strategy"

You could also be in that majority of the people...heck, even I was one.

Every trader loses a lot of money while starting out. And I went through the same problem. But I don't want you to lose more money and waste more time looking for strategies.

Now I have been a profitable trader for the past 10(almost 11) years, But I wasn't profitable at the start just like you or most of us.

I had no one to teach me, guide me or correct my mistakes...or help me build the right mindset to reach where I wanted to be.

I have spent hours in front of charts and I build the "Working Strategy" which works for foreign markets, Indices, Crypto and commodities.

And by now I have trained 7000+ students and made them a profitable trader.

The type of mindset you need, the vision you must have to become a profitable trader is simple yet not easy.

It's very much possible. Because I'm gonna teach you the same method I use to be a profitable trader everyday.
